FIRST-PRIORITY FLEXIBILITY

In 2022, Griffin is offering subscribers easy ticket management strategies to allow for greater flexibility and clarity in the event that any of our performance seasons are interrupted, postponed or cancelled. Just in case theatre-going gets a bit touch-and-go in 2022, please elect how you would like your subscription tickets to be processed by ticking one of the boxes to the right.

If any of my performances are cancelled, please:

- Give me first priority by re-booking my tickets into a performance of an equivalent day and time once the show's season is rescheduled. Our Box Office team will contact you to make sure the new performance date suits you.
- Cancel my booking, and issue me with an automatic refund for that performance.
- Cancel my booking, and issue me with an automatic Griffin credit for the total value of my tickets (valid for three years).
- Cancel my booking, and donate the total value of my tickets to Griffin.

Whatever you choose, all affected subscribers will receive email notification of rescheduled shows before public release, ensuring you're at the front of the queue if you'd like to make a new booking. Head to our website for more ticketing information.
